

La-Z-Boy Recognized for Safety Performance

09/17/19

MONROE, Mich., Sept. 17, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- La-Z-Boy Incorporated (NYSE: LZB) announced it was the recipient of the Corporate Culture of Safety Award for the third consecutive year at the National Safety Council's National Awards Celebration held in San Diego last week. The award honors corporations who foster a creative and collaborative culture to enhance safety performance and obtain a competitive advantage.

Darrell Edwards, Chief Operating Officer of La-Z-Boy Incorporated, who was on site to receive the prestigious award, said: "Safety is of paramount importance to our organization, and we work to ensure our employees arrive home each day in the same condition in which they arrived to work in the morning. Safety is an outcome of our focus on operational excellence and by placing people at the center of our supply chain processes, we are able to provide a safe and productive work environment. Our Dayton, Tennessee facility has been a standout across the organization, registering more than 17 million hours without a lost-time incident, a U.S. furniture industry record, in addition to our Neosho, Missouri plant achieving 10.5 million hours without a lost-time incident."

At the event, La-Z-Boy also won the Occupational Excellence Achievement Award as well as the Safety Leadership Award for multiple locations across the company.

Tim McCurry, Director of Environmental, Health and Safety, said, "We are honored to be recognized again for our commitment to the well-being of our employees. These awards are a testament to the hard work of our employees and leadership team to reduce risk throughout the organization. La-Z-Boy is proud to be part of the National Safety Council and support its mission to eliminate preventable deaths in our lifetime."
